ARCHIE / DR. NEVILLE CRAVEN SIDE 3

SCENE 4: ARCHIBALD'S LIBRARY

ARCHIBALD

It's much worse being back this time. The dreams are much more vivid. And I hear things. In the halls.

DR. CRAVEN

It's the girl, Archie.

ARCHIBALD

Do you mean Mary? But I never see her.

DR. CRAVEN

Because you can't see her, Archie, because she reminds you of Lily.

ARCHIBALD

You can't be serious.

DR. CRAVEN

I can see the resemblance, myself. Although Lily's hair was more...You were very kind to take the girl in, Marchie, but in your state, it's simply too much. If you allow the girl to stay here, to grow up here, I have no doubt your dreams, to say the very least, will get even worse.

ARCHIBALD

But you can see the girl is lonely, Neville. Perhaps I should have more conversations with her.
